Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Emancipation Oration The Bulletin says: - The Oration of Dr. E. R. Johnson, owing to its length, and the pressure upon our columns of other matter, we are unable to give even a synopsis of its points. Eloquent eulogies were pronounced on Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Our Wilberforee of America. Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner, and Gen. Butler, and to the memories of Lincoln and John Brown. The orator closed by advising the colored people to dedicate their lives to the well-begun work, until their full rights were granted to them. The Poem of J. M. Whitfield was well delivered, and a worthy production. The orator and poet were frequently interrupted with applause. The Alta says: - The oration was a well written and well delivered production, and reflect great credit upon its author. The Poem, too, was good, and received marked applause from the audience during delivery. The Times says: - The Doctor possesses a well cultivated mind, and considerable ability as an orator. They express their regret that the demands on their columns prevent them from giving the eloquent composition in full. The orator was frequently interrupted by the applause of the audience. A large number of white people were present. The poem was a really able composition. It deserves to be read entire. The Morning Call says: - The delivery of the oration was marked by considerable force of expression, and a tendency to eulogize certain of the great Abolition leaders. The poem was a meritorious production. The Pacific Appeal says: - The oration was a success. The hall was densely crowded with two thousand white and colored persons indiscriminately. The oration was the...
