Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Interstate Commerce: Speech of Hon. Charles W. Willard of Vermont; House of Representatives, March 24, 1874 The House having under consideration the bill (H. R. No. 1385) to regulate commerce by railroads among the several States - Mr. Willard said: Mr. Speaker, when this subject of the regulation of rates of transportation of merchandise among the States was last before the House, I obtained the floor by the courtesy of a member of the committee, the gentleman from Missouri, [Mr. Stone;] and I was prepared at that time to speak with more method and directness than I shall now be able to do. If I proceed, therefore, in a some what desultory way, and with little attention to the logical order of my remarks, I hope this will be a partial excuse for so doing. I deem it a favorable circumstance, in connection with this discussion, that it cannot fairly be said to take a party character. Gentlemen who have been always and still are associated with the democratic party have spoken in favor of...
