Red Deer Press. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Moses Beaver (illustrator). Hardcover. 32 pages. Dimensions: 10.9in. x 8.6in. x 0.5in. On the White Ravens Outstanding New International Books for Children and Young Adults list, 2008 Canadian Childrens Book Centre Our Choice, 2009 Before the angels stars grew dim And wondering hunters heard their hymn One mystic flute - one hundred drums One message clear, A King has come! Not one had ever seen the like By light of day or moon of night Before the angels stars grew dim And wondering hunters heard this hymn. . . An Aboriginal Carol is the ultimate Aboriginal collaboration: poetry by Metis poet David Bouchard, paintings by First Nations artist Moses Beaver, and the music of Inuit performer Susan Aglukark. Best-selling Canadian author David Bouchard reworks Canadas oldest and most well-known carol, The Huron Carol. The art of Moses Beaver, from the fly-in reserve of Summer Beaver, Ontario (Nikinamik), resonates and awakens an awareness that is at once exciting and empowering, a way for all people to understand the birth of Christ from an Aboriginal worldview. The pride of the north, Susan Aglukark, interprets, for the first time, the revered carol. Written in English and in Inuktituk, the language of Canadas Inuit people, the book is accompanied by a CD, which includes a reading in both languages and a performance by Susan. An Aboriginal Carol is certain to become a classic. One of Canadas bestselling and award winning authors, David Bouchard is of Metis descent. The author of over two dozen best-selling books, his If Youre Not from the Prairie is on Macleans list of the top 20 Canadian childrens books. David Bouchard was a teacher and a principal for many years before turning to writing. For more information, visit www.davidbouchard.com. Moses (Amik) Beaver...
