Lord offended with the seas, That thou camest forth in chariot hot as fire? Thy force and power thou freely didst relate; Vnto the tribes thy oath doth surely stand; And by thy strength thou didst deuide the land, And from the earth the riuers seperate. The mountaines saw, and trembled for feare; The sturdy streame with speed foorth passed by; The mightv deptes shout out a hideous crie, And then aloft their waues they did vpreare. The sun and moon amid their course stood still; Thy speares and arrowes forth with shining went: Thou spoilest the land, being to anger bent, And in displeasure thou didst slay and kill. Thou wentest foorth for thine owne chosens sake, For the sauegard of thine annoited one: The house of wicked men is ouerthrowne, And their foundations now goe all to wraeke. Their townes thou...
