Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Let us consider this on the holy house at Loretto: THE house in which the Holy Family spent so many years in Nazareth is indeed a sacred relic; it still exists and is highly prized. There is a singular history connected with it, and the facts are well authenticated. The Holy House is no longer in Nazareth, for in the year 1291 it was transported entire, by the ministry of angels, to Tersatz on the eastern coast of the Adriatic. At that time the house had disappeared from its foundations and was found in this town declarations are made that angels were seen high up in the air carrying a house. In 1295 the angels again took up the house and carried it across the waters to Loretto, where it now is. The angels themselves seem to consider this house a very precious relic, and they are so interested in it that they have located it on the spot where it is now. The Holy House is not a very large building: it is twenty seven feet long and twelve feet wide; it is of broad. thin red brick. It stands now in the centre of a beautiful church of the walled town of Loretto as we enter the church there stands before us a marble house with rich and artistic carvings around it, portraying the life of the Holy Family in the various scenes for which we have scriptural authority; this marble house screens the real one entirely, so that you cannot see it or touch it. But why did not the angels keep this Holy House in Nazareth, where it really belongs? We can hardly answer...
