The result was The Hopkins 1 Records, III. 37. Grammar School. Its yearly support from the town wax 30, and Mr. Davenport paid from the Hopkins bequest 10 more. The school wa feeble during the first years, when the town was changing rules aud rulers, but Mr. Davenport, though evidently aging fast, watched over it with unremitting zeal. Into the Town-Meeting of February 7, 1668, he came, and made some querulous remarks about the attendance at the school. He threatened the withdrawal from the town of his portion of the Hopkins estate unless the children went to the school, To be taught for the fitting them for the service of God in church and commonwealth. Whereupon Roger Ailing declared his purlose of bringing up one of his sons to learning, and six other good men made similar statements. And Mr. Augur said...
