Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: . in vain that build it, and the Lord seemed to be building this house even in troublous times. Everything would have had to be hauled forty miles for a railroad when by rare chance we got a boat. We got the only boat of the whole year to bring up our seventy feet of material which came ready for our work early in the season. Two men were ready to go at it at once. Friends helped with sufficient money. Discounted cash payments were made for everything, and now the house stands a thing of beauty as well as use for the years to come. We have been able to provide for the churches on the reservation and for the boarding school. The native leaders are at work among the churches. The This is the boat that brought the material that made the house that Hall built These are the men that loaded the boat that brought the material that made the house that Hall buiit. NOTES FROM THE SCHOOLS Talladega This has been an A. eventful fall at TallaTalladega, Ala. degft We had scarcey begun school in September when we were told that on October 1st Talladega College was to have a unit of the Students Army Training Corps as a part of our college. We were very proud of the fact that the War Department considered Talladega worthy of the honor of having an A unit. As there are no A units in...
