The Adventures of Buddy Schmitz (Paperback)

By Joe Schmitz

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .About The Adventures of Buddy Schmitz . Joe Buddy Schmitz was born deaf in rural Nebraska, the youngest of four children. The first part of The Adventures of Buddy Schmitz is a memoir of his growing up in the 1940s at his home on the family farm, in a world that offered everything a boy could want, including plenty of time and room to run around or ride bikes with his friends, a nearby swimming hole with a rope swing, and older siblings that doted on him. Different than many other memoirs of that time is that Buddy only lived with his parents during summers and the occasional weekend during the school year, since, like other deaf children of that time, he lived at the school for the deaf during the school year. It s also interesting that few of the hearing people closest to Buddy used formal sign language. However, he and his family communicated well by means of home signs, gestures he and his family invented over time to meet their needs. The memoir, however,...
